Trivia A-Z for Seniors is the culmination of about 6 years of a weekly team trivia activity I designed and led for the residents at a senior living community where I worked for nearly 10 years. Beginning almost as a fluke, it quickly developed into one of the most popular and consistently successful activities in the community. Unlike so many collections of trivia and trivia quizzes, focus was on gearing the questions to the particular age group. Similar to the original weekly team trivia model, the book has been formatted, for the most part, in 10-question rounds as that seems to work well with regard to both time and attention span. Also, this format will allow activity leaders in any setting to easily pull out what they would like to use for a particular event without having to spend valuable time searching the internet for trivia questions and organizing each event themselves. A handy printable Answer & Score Sheet can be found just before the index at the end of this book. My hope is that you will find the content of these pages fun and useful for weeks and months to come, whether you are involved with a local senior living community or RV park, community center, or wherever seniors may tend to gather. The book can also make an excellent gift for friends or family members who love trivia or are looking for ways to keep their mind active.

Willy Wonka's famous chocolate factory is opening at last! But only five lucky children will be allowed inside. And the winners are: Augustus Gloop, an enormously fat boy whose hobby is eating; Veruca Salt, a spoiled-rotten brat whose parents are wrapped around her little finger; Violet Beauregarde, a dim-witted gum-chewer with the fastest jaws around; Mike Teavee, a toy pistol-toting gangster-in-training who is obsessed with television; and Charlie Bucket, Our Hero, a boy who is honest and kind, brave and true, and good and ready for the wildest time of his life!

The beloved, bestselling classic that became the movie, A CHRISTMAS STORY -- humorous and nostalgic Americana, reissued in a strikingly designed paperback edition. Before Garrison Keillor and Spalding Gray there was Jean Shepherd: a master monologist and writer who spun the materials of his all-American childhood into immensely resonant--and utterly hilarious--works of comic art. In God We Trust: All Others Pay Cash represents one of the peaks of his achievement, a compound of irony, affection, and perfect detail that speaks across generations. In God We Trust, Shepherd's wildly witty reunion with his Indiana hometown, disproves the adage "You can never go back." Bending the ear of Flick, his childhood-buddy-turned-bartender, Shepherd recalls passionately his genuine Red Ryder BB gun, confesses adolescent failure in the arms of Junie Jo Prewitt, and relives a story of man against fish that not even Hemingway could rival. From pop art to the World's Fair, Shepherd's subjects speak with a universal irony and are deeply and unabashedly grounded in American Midwestern life, together rendering a wonderfully nostalgic impression of a more innocent era when life was good, fun was clean, and station wagons roamed the earth. A comic genius who bridged the gap between James Thurber and David Sedaris, Shepherd may have accomplished for Holden, Indiana, what Mark Twain did for Hannibal, Missouri.
