hell to have her. As an unwed teenager, no one had understood Carly's fiercely protective bond to her fatherless child—not her parents, not the sometimes narrow-minded college town she called home. But Tracy was hers, and no one would ever take her away, especially the golden boy who'd made Carly a woman—and nearly destroyed her world—one all-too-memorable night. The memory of Mitch Scanlon hadn't faded with the years. And now the man himself threatened to become a permanent fixture in her life—as well as a bittersweet reminder of her darkest secret. One that surely couldn't last once father and daughter were united.

Rugged rancher Jake McGregor wrangles cattle better than kids, but when he's suddenly saddled with three grieving children, he's determined to step up. His sister's kids shouldn't pay for her error in judgment in naming him guardian. Problem is, he doesn't have a clue what he's doing. And the woman who attempts to help with his every fumble is the one woman he wants to steer clear of... Lacey Anderson loves a challenge, but Jake's already broken her heart once. When his tall shadow darkens the doorway of her classroom, she's ready to shut him out - until she meets her new students, and sees the desperation in Jake's eyes. Emotional intelligence is so not his forte. But she's done banging her head against that wall. Jake, however, is finally ready to learn how to love and Lacey's the teacher he wants. Is she willing to risk her own heart again to teach him?

Single dad and small town farmer Christian Hunter used to believe if you love someone you should let them go and trust they'll return, but ten years is a long time. When Danni comes home to recover from the car crash in which her fiancé and fellow band mate was killed, he knows he should leave well enough alone. He's done with comforting broken-hearted women. These days, he's saving his love for his young son. Sometimes love, however, deserves a second chance.

A woman must face her husband's secrets when he is suddenly attacked in this "superior domestic thriller" of envy and literary ambition (Publishers Weekly, starred review). A biracial couple with two young children, the Campbells face as many challenges as any family in Liverpool. But Jane tends to let her husband, Leon—a bestselling thriller writer—fight their battles. Averse to conflict, she prefers to focus on what seems to be going right: her two precious children; her occasionally rocky but still loving marriage; and while her manuscripts keep getting rejected, she enjoys teaching creative writing. But then Leon is brutally attacked in their

Suddenly, she sees her life in a shocking new light. But if she wants to find out who hurt her husband, she will have to pay attention to every unpleasant detail
