This handbook is a great resource to help you in your planning efforts. It is especially helpful to the Alpha Administrator, or the person who carries the overall responsibility of running Alpha, leading the team and delegating tasks. Alpha creates an environment of hospitality where people can bring their friends, family and work colleagues to explore the Christian faith, ask questions and share their point of view. Alpha makes it easy to invite friends to have spiritual conversations which explore life's biggest questions in a safe and respectful way. Alpha's approach to hospitality, faith, and discussion is designed to welcome everyone, especially those who might not describe themselves as Christians or church-goers. Each session includes time for a large group meal, short teaching, and small group discussion. This resource is written in Japanese.

Never has the need for reliable internetworking been greater, yet with networks now comprising differing operating systems, hardware, and software, achieving a reliable network has never been more complex. Network planners and managers face a multitude of difficult decisions-decisions made even more difficult by the need for knowledge from a variet

"Lights, Camera, Telemedicine" is an article written by Marilyn Larkin that originally appeared in the May-June 1997 issue of "FDA Consumer," a magazine published by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA). Larkin discusses the practice of telemedicine, which involves the use of computers and telecommunication equipment to provide health care over long distances. She discusses the benefits and obstacles of telemedicine. The FDA presents the article online.
