Hearing Pierce Brown talk about a hard-R 10-episode season for Red Rising already gives me a lot of hope that, should Red Rising make it to the screen, a TV adaptation would have the time (and hopefully the budget) to do the books justice. And given all of the violence featured in the books, a hard R adaptation sounds about right.

The Red Rising Series has, until today, rang every bell, satisfied every superhero plot-driven need. I'm halfway through the fifth book, DARK AGES, and the violence that escalates in Chapter 55, then rapidly moves on to the most appalling lows is more than I can support. Del Rey Publishing!

Red Rising: Sons of Ares is a prequel to the Red Rising series that was originally released as 6 comics (which of course being a superfan I've already purchased!). I believe the comics are now out of print and only available as ebooks so I think it's fantastic for fans that we're now getting this hardback bind-up of the whole series. The hardback is available in two versions signed or unsigned which is slightly cheaper.
