" Ross Gay ' s eye lands upon wonder at every turn, bolstering my belief in the countless small miracles that surround us. " —Tracy K. Smith, Pulitzer Prize winner and U.S. Poet Laureate The winner of the NBCC Award for Poetry offers up a spirited collection of short lyric essays, written daily over a tumultuous year, reminding us of the purpose and pleasure of praising, extolling, and celebrating ordinary wonders. Ross Gay ' s The Book of Delights is a genre-defying book of essays—some as short as a paragraph; some as long as five pages—that record the small joys that occurred in one year, from birthday to birthday, and that we often overlook in our busy lives. His is a meditation on delight that takes a clear-eyed view of the complexities, even the terrors, in his life, including living in America as a black man; the ecological and psychic violence of our consumer culture; the loss of those he loves. Among Gay ' s funny, poetic, philosophical delights: the way Botan Rice Candy wrappers melt in your mouth, the volunteer crossing guard with a pronounced tremor whom he imagines as a kind of boat-woman escorting pedestrians across the River Styx, a friend ' s unabashed use of air quotes, pickup basketball games, the silent nod of acknowledgment between black people. And more than any other subject, Gay celebrates the beauty of the natural world—his garden, the flowers in the sidewalk, the birds, the bees, the mushrooms, the trees. This is not a book of how-to or inspiration, though it could be read that way. Fans of Roxane Gay, Maggie Nelson, and Kiese Laymon will revel in Gay ' s voice, and his insights. The Book of Delights is about our connection to the world, to each other, and the rewards that come from a life closely observed. Gay ' s pieces serve as a powerful and necessary reminder that we can, and should, stake out a space in our lives for delight.

Discover the magic of vernal pools--wetlands that fill with water in the spring and dry up in the summer--by following the annual life cycle of spotted salamanders. From shimmering eggs and wriggling larvae to metamorphosis and hibernation, these ephemeral wetlands are alive year-round, but nothing compares to their spectacular springtime Salamander Dance!

Remarkable MIRACLES ...Far more than this world dreams What happens when we devote our lives to prayer? Mow does prayer change our circumstances? Why does God want us to pray? You will be amazed by G.C. Bevington's diligence, and astounded by all (God shows to him when be spends five days in a hollow log, nine days under a tree, and seventy-two hours in a haystack in prayer. G.C. Bevington was a simple man. He had a remarkable relationship with God. Travel with him through the southern countryside as he brings faith in God to the people he encounters - solving problems, rejoicing in the miracles of God's provision, and finding the keys to healing.

Kings and queens, British prime ministers, American presidents, countries of Europe... We should all know these things - but like me, you're probably resigned to being the kind of person that just never will. Now Grandmaster of Memory Ed Cooke offers up his memory secrets with a fun, quick and completely unforgettable way to remember the things you thought you never could. But this is no boring Willy, Willy, Harry, Ste. With Ed leading the way on unlikely adventures through people and places, Abraham Lincoln may become a circle of bra-wearing hams linking arms in your mind, and you may well encounter a fridge wearing Calvin Klein underpants. You could also soon find yourself rattling off the prime ministers to a rapt audience and adding, in a knowing tone, 'ah yes, Marquess of Rockingham, Whig I believe?'. What is for sure is that you ' ll be bursting with knowledge that will stick in your mind and impress your friends for ever.

An attempt to redraw our mental maps of global politics through the prism of 'post-internationalism'.
