Personal Financial Management: from College to Career, 5th Edition is a unique book written specifically for young adults and families concerned about the complex financial world they face as they begin their careers and lives together. It was originally published as a companion text for an upper division course taught by Mr. Selinger at the University of California at Berkeley, sponsored by the Haas School of Business. It is easily read and understood by both business and non-business majors. The recently printed "5th Edition" includes updated information about credit cards, debit cards, student loan debt, credit reports, FICO scoring, identity theft, the impact of love and money in a relationship, the ways to buy a house or car, personal taxes, IRAs, 401k plans, endless investment options, in stocks, bonds and mutual funds, soaring medical and retirement costs, and much more

The Missing Link is specifically designed for those who are concerned about their financial future in a complex world of credit cards, debit cards, prepaid cards, credit reports, FICO scoring, re-paying student loans, identity theft, the impact of love and money in a relationship, ways to buy a house or car, personal taxes, IRAs, 401(k) plans, endless investment options in stocks, bonds and mutual funds, insurance, and soaring medical and retirement costs. This book gives the reader a solid financial foundation in a world where important financial choices are made and mistakes can be costly.

Are you "leadership material"? More importantly, do others perceive you to be? Sylvia Ann Hewlett, a noted expert on workplace power and influence, shows you how to identify and embody the Executive Presence (EP) that you need to succeed. You can have the experience and qualifications of a leader, but without executive presence, you won't advance. EP is an amalgam of qualities that true leaders exude, a presence that telegraphs you're in charge or deserve to be. Articulating those qualities isn't easy, however. Based on a nationwide survey of college graduates working across a range of sectors and occupations, Sylvia Hewlett and the Center for Talent Innovation discovered that EP is a dynamic, cohesive mix of appearance, communication, and gravitas. While these elements are not equal, to have true EP, you must know how to use all of them to your advantage. Filled with eye-opening insights, analysis, and practical advice for both men and women, mixed with illustrative examples from executives learning to use the EP, Executive Presence will help you make the leap from working like an executive to feeling like an executive.

The Missing Link of the Sport of Basketball By: Martin Suazo, Sr After witnessing a sports phenomenon at the age of 12-years-old, Martin Suazo has wanted to share this secret with millions of basketball players throughout the world. Suazo hopes to change the technique of the off-set shot and inspire his readers to learn, master, and share these new techniques in the large community of basketball.

"Missing Link" is vintage Frank Herbert. It tells the story of Lewis Orne, junior I-A field man, on the planet Gienah III. He is there to investigate a missing ship, and the natives are nothing but trouble... Originally published in "Astounding Science Fiction" under the editorship of John W. Campbell, Jr., here is a tale from the Golden Age of Science Fiction!
